Customer Reviews

If you're a fan of Lovecraft's Cthulhu, like to color and/or have children (Who're are old enough), then this is a no brainer! Wonderful book created/drawn by someone with great talent! Can't wait to give this to my grandchildren! :-)

This coloring/activity book, filled with lovable monsters and weird creatures, hints of the worlds of Tim Burton and other writers of the like. Tweens, young adults or anyone into dark comedic horror will love the wonderfully dreadful games and art work. What's not hard to imagine is Cthulhu and the other characters, such as Little Dead Boy, crossing over into comics and animation. Yes, I am definitely looking forward to seeing what else comes from this very talented artist in the future.

I saw this coloring and activity book at a local art show and I had to find it on to leave a review. The "look inside" does not do this book justice. The character designs are smart and creative, while the activities are brilliantly hilarious. I'm not a huge H.P. Lovecraft fan, but I thoroughly enjoyed flipping through this book. I ended up buying two copies, one for me and one for my girlfriend (who also loves it). If you're a fan of the source material or just love to funny coloring books, this is a must buy. Or buy two and give it to a friend. I hope the artist comes out with more work soon.

I love this book. The artwork is fantastic. The puzzles and games are mostly just excuses for visual puns and comedic references, but they're really funny. I'm never going to write in mine anyway so that's not a negative for me. I would recommend this to anyone who loves Cthulhu but doesn't take themselves too seriously.
