Neo Rauch: At The Well

Synopsis

At the Well, produced to coincide with an exhibition of Neo Rauch's (born 1960) new works at David Zwirner in New York, brings together both small- and large-format paintings that expand the artist's unique iconography of eccentric figures, animals and hybrids within vaguely familiar but imaginary settings. This oversized catalogueâ•designated in close collaboration with the artistâ•is anchored by 16 stunning plates and numerous 1:1 details that give viewers intimate access to these compelling compositions. Themes of rebirth and new beginnings abound: Rauch consistently creates characters who appear to be in the process of transformation. At the Well features an essay by art historian and curator Sir Norman Rosenthal, who presents a careful reading of Rauch's new work. The book also includes a reprint of the classic Brothers Grimm fairy tale "The Young Giant," specifically chosen by Rosenthal to further expand his analysis.

Customer Reviews

Beautiful book featuring Neo Rauch's paintings shown at his New York art exhibition in November of 2014. There are around ten very large format paintings and a number of smaller works as well. The gems are the large paintings which are ten feet high. There are scenes within scenes and many details to take in. The color palette is wonderful and it was easy to get lost looking at these paintings. The book shows the wide view as well as closer up detail images. If you are both a new fan or a long-time fan this is an excellent collection of paintings and recommended.
