Keep the magic of Christmas alive all year, with the 31 delightful, imaginative collages in this book, each illustration artfully captures the magic of Christmas by highlighting a traditional Christmas image and surrounding those images with a unique border. My school aged Grandchildren love this book, they are coloring in it now, in March, and dreaming about Christmases to come, and remembering Christmases past.

1. 31 Collage illustrations printed one per page (the back of each page is blank) on heavy weight, bright white, perforated paper for easy removal.
2. Each collage has a unique border including Ribbons, Pine cones, Stars, bows, leaves, nuts and many more.
- 3.

Illustrations are detailed and some have small details, colored pencils, fine point markers, felt tip pens work well with this book, some of the illustrations could be done in crayons also.4. For Adults and school aged children age 5 and up. Illustrations include: Doves, Christmas Stockings, Snow Flakes, Cardinals, Gingerbread Men, Christmas lights, Reindeer, Christmas packages, Toy Soldiers, Christmas tree bulbs, Snowmen, Candles, Classic Toys, Poinsettias, Bells, Candy Canes & Gum Drops, Ribbons, Angels, Wreaths, Snow Globes, Christmas Trees, Candy Canes, Christmas Dinner, Bows, Ginger Bread Houses, Sleds & Hats & Skates, Chipmunks, Santa's from around the world, Christmas paper, Mistletoe, Bows,

Love, love, love, this book. It reminds me of old books from my childhood. I'm 66 and when I was young there were books with pictures of ornaments, and trees, and snowmen , candy, wreaths, packages, ribbons, just love this book. It was just delivered so I haven't colored yet but will soon. I have a very large collection of dover publication books and this is one of my favorite. Brings back good memories of my childhood.

Jessica Mazurkiewicz brings her signature style of collage designs to Christmas Time. As with her other coloring books, the designs in this book show multiple images that overlay one another that all deal with a single subject (for example, nutcrackers, ornaments, or bows.) At first glance, it seems that the designs may be repetitious but when you look a little more closely, you can see that while they may have a similar shape or subject, they are all quite different as well. I purchase Springbok puzzles that have a similar feel and really enjoy those as well. Coloring lets me put my spin on how the items should look. As Christmas is my favorite time of year, I am always looking for fun crafts to do that celebrate the season and this book is a great one for a single person or for a family to share. The designs are printed on one side of a good weight perforated paper . The binding is glued and the designs stop well before the perforations. Each of the designs include a "frame" around it to give the colorist a definite stopping point " this saves me time and ink and provides a more finished look to my project. With this book, the frame is made up design elements to add to coloring fun. All of my markers and gel pens bleed through on Creative Haven paper. Coloring pencils work well. I generally do use markers and gel pens, so I either remove the page from the book or I place a piece of chipboard, cardstock, or heavyweight paper beneath the page I am working on to keep seeping ink from ruining the next design.

This book is full of charming Christmas themed designs. The designs have a border but take up most of the page and only on one side of the page. They are good to display in a frame as individual pieces. They are detailed designs but would not be difficult for most people. A few of the images are more winter themed than Christmas themed. Subjects include Christmas trees, Christmas cookies and candy, Christmas stockings, candles, poinsettias, birds in snowy trees, sleds and skates, cups of cocoa, snow globes, nutcrackers, and snowmen. The paper is bright white, medium weight and perforated so they can be easily removed from the book. Colored pencils are my preferred medium for this paper, but I have also used permanent markers, which do bleed through. I pull the pages out and color them on a clip board with a couple sheets of drawing paper underneath. I have attached some completed images, the first 3 are done with colored pencil except the backgrounds which are alcohol marker. The stocking image is all alcohol marker.

Tons of coloring fun as a great stress reliever; my grandchildren enjoy their own variety of coloring these pages. Word of warning: don't use markers. They bleed onto the next page. Stick with crayons and pencils. Then you'll be alright.

I love all creative Haven coloring books!! The pictures are all gorgeous. I find it very relaxing to color in these books, and I highly recommend. I own several and will continue to purchase more.

I recently become a part of the adult coloring book craze, and have purchased many books over the past couple of months. I have purchased 6 Christmas coloring books alone. The "ChristmasScapes" book is by far the best of the bunch. There are lots of really fun pages to color. The images are detailed enough to hold an adult's interest. I am in love with this book! Can't wait to start coloring in this book and would highly recommend it.
